ellen rooney ed The Cambridge Companion to Feminist

October 31st, 2007 - Feminist theory s success in showing that gender has been constructed and represented through language is a product of a particular moment in the history of literature and literary theory Ironically as feminism was subsumed into political and academic discourse it formed an unwittingly hegemonic voice that divided some pioneering third wave feminist theorists from more marginal groups
