December 24th, 2012 - In her latest book Traveling Light a collection of 63 poems many like mini memoirs Pastan continues to write about the many faces of change and death in particular even though now at age 80 death isn't as distant as when she ended "Dirge" with the above three lines

Traveling Light by Linda Pastan Goodreads

January 30th, 2011 - Traveling Light is one of the only collections of poetry that contains poems about nature that do not annoy me Maybe Linda Pastan's sectioning of poems helps create a larger picture into which these poems about birds and flowers fit that works for me

Traveling Light Academy of American Poets

February 4th, 2014 - Traveling Light In her thirteenth collection of poetry Pastan offers a reflective account of the passage of time Traveling Light is a meditation on family change art and aging and the everyday objects and occurrences that become the markers of a life lived

Traveling Light Poems Linda Pastan Google Books

November 10th, 2018 - Linda Pastan meditates on themes of aging and memory language and art in this moving collection where she travels from the Thanksgiving table a palimpsest with traces of the past showing through to Japan where she dreams in haiku
